

CFUW Atlantic Regional Conference 2010
Auberge le Vieux Presbytere
Bouctouche, New Brunswick
October 1 – 2, 2010

“Women of Diversity
Celebrating our Culture, Embracing our Bonds”

REGISTRATION FORM

Please print

Name _____ Club _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ E-Mail _____

Are you bringing a club banner? Yes _____ No _____

Special needs:

I plan to bring an item (or items) for:

Boutique _____ Silent Auction _____

Flight # and Arrival time:

Will transportation be required? Yes _____ No _____

Are you interested in attending a buffet dinner Saturday night at the Dune View Inn & Restaurant as a group? (approx. $25.00) Yes _____ No _____

Our meeting will be held in a unique building constructed in 1880. Due to its age, the Auberge has no elevator.

There are many interesting sights within walking distance of the Auberge. Further information will be provided in your registration package.

Speakers

Hon. Marilyn Trenholme Counsell MD, ONB

Dr. Trenholme Counsell's life represents a diversity of accomplishments. After extensive studies she practiced medicine in Ontario and New Brunswick. She was elected to the NB Legislature in 1987. She was appointed Lieutenant Governor of NB in 1997 and Senator in the Parliament of Canada in 2003. She remains dedicated to early childhood development and literacy.

Marilyn Simon Ingram

Marilyn is a First Nation's interpreter at Kouchibouguac National Park. She has extensive knowledge of Indian legends which she shares with the children of her reserve, Elsipogtog. Marilyn is a former student of the Indian Residential Schools.

Betty de Asis

Betty came to Canada, from the Philippines, as a mail order bride. She works with youth and adults on First Nations Reserves. Betty is also involved in bringing girls from the Phillipines to work in New Brunswick.

Rosa Barrieau

Rosa was born in Acadieville, a French speaking village in Kent County, N.B. She retired from a challenging 30-year career with the Department of Foreign Affairs. She now lives in Saint-Thomas-de-Kent where she volunteers in the community, enjoys outdoor life and spends time with her large family.